The Bradgate

Group Parish

October 2018

I've just watched Alastair Cook end his Test career with a final century (147 to be exact, and yes the game was cricket not snooker). I guess it shows my age that it doesn't seem that long ago that this angelic choir-boy first came into the side, scoring a century on that occasion too. About 12,400 and something Test runs later, he bows out.

In his final game everything he did attracted applause: every time he went out to the wicket, every good stroke, every time he hit a milestone score. It felt like he was intent on breaking one final record: the number of standing ovations one player has ever got in a single game!

Why did the crowd respond to him in that way? Of course, he's been a great batsman – the best, statistically, England have ever had. But there was more to it than that. We've had players who have achieved great things, but Cook seems to have been taken to people's hearts that little bit more.

Charles Dagnall, cricket commentator wrote this: 'So long Alistair Cook. For all his excellence on the field I shall remember how personable, approachable and good humoured he was off it, especially in tough times'. Others have commented how he is popular with everyone in the dressing room – something that definitely can't be said about other star batsman of his time!

It seems that who you are can mean as much as what you achieve. Of course it's great to have the achievements, the records, the trophies, but you can have all those things and remain unfulfilled, unliked.

So we know how Cook has achieved his cricketing records: hard work, dedication and supreme focus. How has he achieved his character? Some, like his cricketing skill, may well be innate – just who he is – but I wonder whether those early formative days as a choirboy have also left him with echoes of Jesus' teaching: the importance of humility, the value of gratitude, the need for perspective. And whether, if we want to be people that are loved as well as admired, we might look to the same source?

Newtown Linford Ramblers

Starting at Sunnyside Garden Centre, Ibstock, we walked along part of Jubilee Wood to the Penny Wakefield Wood and followed the well marked path signs. Wild flowers could still be seen with a buzzard and other every day birds. There are a few small man-made lakes with seriously depleted water levels. We then walked back to Sunnyside Tea Rooms where we had delicious refreshments at a very reasonable price.

Penny Wakefield was an active Councillor for Ellistown and Battleflat who gave her heart and soul to making the Parish a better place. The Wood was created on farmland during the winter of 2016-2017 and surrounds the Industrial estate. Work remains in progress.

The October walk will be led by Peter Lowe. Telephone 01530 242877 if wish further details otherwise meet opposite Newtown Linford Village Hall for 2pm.

Well behaved dogs welcome. Walkers walk at their own risk.

Brownies

It was a sunny night at brown owls garden when we had sports day.

We had funny games like walking on stilts and racing to get potatoes.

We had a race to dress up and had to wear some really massive trousers!

The best bit for me was the race to get the sweets from the icing sugar. It went all over our faces.

We had a really good time, thank you Brown Owl.

Newtown Linford Gardening Club

Our trip to Thornbridge Hall in August was a great success. The gardens were lovely. A team of only four gardeners managed the twelve acre site and the renovations they have done in recent years are truly spectacular. The lunch they provided for us was excellent and the nursery offered plants which some of us had not seen before. By the end of the afternoon, there was little space left in the luggage compartment of the coach!!!!

Our celebrity evening is again in October and our special guest is the writer and broadcaster Bunny Guinness. Ticket sales already ensure that we will have a full Hall on that occasion which will be a grand climax to a very successful year. It is a privilege to welcome speakers of such national renown and the popularity of these events helps to ensure our Club remains popular and successful.

Our membership has reached new heights. We now have 128 members and this is a far cry from the days around ten years ago when about twenty of us met in the small room of the Village Hall. Every meeting in the Hall sees a large audience listening to speakers, many of whom have had national success in their chosen fields.

We have welcomed a large number of new members this year and will be pleased if others want to join us. If you are interested in our activities just contact the Secretary (tel. 242452 or e-mail (32couling@gmail.com), or come to one of our Meetings to see how you like it before making a commitment (£3 for visitors). Alternatively give us a ring and ask for a copy of our programme for the coming year and we will be pleased to send one to you.

Anne Holmes

I would like to thank everyone who sent me messages of condolence on the death of my dear sister who passed away on 8th September after a long illness suffering from dementia.

I have been very touched by all the messages and cards that I have received and a big thank you to all who have remembered me in their prayers. It has been a great comfort to both me and my family.

ments to the frontage of the premises are only part of the works which will hopefully secure The Linford as a venue for the local community, their families and friends.

The Linford was originally attached to the British Legion and, even now, the 'official' title is The Newtown Linford Ex-Services Club and has been part of village life since 1926 when the men of the village, mostly ex-servicemen, decided that they would build their own 'local' where they could gather and socialise amongst friends.

Having updated the "kerb appeal", the Committee asked a local resident, Amanda Sculthorpe an Interior Designer, to advise and assist in updating the interior. Amanda said:

"As the wife of one of The Clubs regulars, I've recognised that it has its own magnetism, why is it so many husbands tell their partners that they are popping into the Club for an hour, only to return much later stating that they " Simply couldn't get out"!

However, although being well used and well loved, many felt that it needed a makeover and a bit of TLC, this is where I came in. I was asked to 'Cast my eye over the place' and advise on giving the interior a new look while respecting its past.

The Lounge, Bar and Pool Room have been completely redecorated. New lighting and furniture have been added to complement the redecoration and on behalf of all its loyal regulars, we invite you to pop in for a glass or two. Do, however, give yourselves plenty of time as you too may find it, 'hard to leave'.

The Linford is not only a place to have a drink, we host a Rock n Roll night on a Monday, free Pool for members on Tuesday evenings and Quiz Night every Wednesday. Our Function Room can accommodate 100 people and is free to hire for any event for functions utilising the Bar.

In recognition of the Linford's history, we are planning a grand "unveiling" on the centenary of WWI Armistice Day on 11th November.

After a special WWI Centenary Commemoration Remembrance Day Service at Newtown Linford's All Saints Church, The Linford would like to welcome everyone for a commemoration celebration beginning with the unveiling of the new plaque dedicated to the memory of the brave Soldiers who fought for us during the two World Wars.

Our special Day will also include tea and cake, activities for the children, a charity raffle, a burger and sausage barbecue and a great all-round celebratory atmosphere.

Everyone is welcome.

A Nation's Tribute 100 Years of Remembrance

To commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the end of the First World War, and all those who gave their lives, All Saints' Church bells will be ringing half muffled (as a sign of respect) for 30 minutes duration starting at 19:00 on 11th Nov 2018.

At least 1000 other Churches will be "ringing out for peace" and we are very pleased to be taking part in this significant national event.

Iris Sayer, on behalf of All Saints Church Bell ringers

Ten thousand members of the public will be invited to march past the Cenotaph to mark the centenary of the Armistice. Descendants, family members and the public are invited to apply to take part in 'A Nation's Thank You - The People's Procession' on Sunday 11th November 2018.

At the same time, people are being encouraged to ring bells around the world, as the Government is seeking to replicate the spontaneous outpouring of relief that took place in 1918.

As news of the Armistice spread, church bells, which had fallen silent across the UK during the First World War, rang out in celebration.

Culture Secretary Jeremy Wright said:

On the centenary of the Armistice, it is right that we come together to give thanks to those who paid the ultimate sacrifice and those who returned home to help shape the world we live in today.

This will be a fitting conclusion to the four year commemorations of the centenary of the First World War and will ensure the stories from this important period of our history are passed down to future generations.

Bell ringing and the People's Procession will take place after the conclusion of The Royal British Legion's Veteran Dispersal and March Past the Cenotaph, which follows the National Service of Remembrance on 11th November 2018, the centenary of the end of the First World War.

Dogs Trust

My name is Hannah Graham and I am the Supporter Relations Officer at Dogs Trust Loughborough. I am hoping you may be able to help us, and your dog owning visitors (and anyone who just loves to hear about dogs!), by displaying information on a few services that we provide.

The first, our Canine Care Card scheme, is a free service for dog-owners whereby, in the event of their death, we will look after their dog, providing them with all the care they need until we can find a responsible, loving new home for them. This is often a great concern to the elderly, as their dog may be their only friend and companion – Dogs Trust can give them peace of mind, knowing that their canine companions future is safe, should the worst happen to them.

Every year, we care for more than 15,000 dogs at our nationwide network of rehoming centres and we never put down a healthy dog. Attached is a poster highlighting the scheme, in the hope that it may be of interest to your Parish and the people who visit.

If you would like more information, or require a stock of A5 leaflets on the scheme, please contact me by phoning 01509 882966 or emailing hannah.graham@dogstrust.org.uk.

Secondly I wanted to mention another service that we provide, which is free talks to local community groups. I cover the whole of the East Midlands, often accompanied by a four-legged friend, to talk about the varied work of Dogs Trust, where we come from and where we hope to be in the future. As mentioned before, there are no speaker fees or travelling expenses so please let me know if any of the groups in your area would be interested and I can also send out an A4 poster, like the attached, that can be put on display.

Thank you very much for your time and thank you in anticipation that you are able to display the information.

Kind Regards
Hannah Graham

Newtown Linford Neighbourhood Watch - A member of the Parish Council

Being short on crime and having nothing to write about I searched on my postcode for crime on Police UK. Our beat area said we had 84 crimes. I think we knew of one as mentioned last month. That was the collection box of unknown quantity in the Bradgate Trust car park. That means Newtown, Cropston, Mountsorrel and Quorn had 83 crimes.

However, one day later I received a call from a resident on Bradgate Road who unfortunately had a burglary that morning. Her neighbour thought a car was parked strangely and went to keep watch. She saw a male climbing back out of a very small window that had been left open. She noted the car details and number plate. The thief took jewelry and other items including hearing aids and batteries. The Police informed me at the Parish Council meeting that night that they believed they had the culprits. The aggrieved told me how proud she was of her neighbour and her Neighbourhood Watch skills. Please remember no window seems to be too small!

It was good to see P.C.S.O Alistair Cochrane (known as Ali) for the second consecutive month at our Parish Council meeting. Face to Face chats are much more productive. Prior to this meeting he had held an hours Beat Surgery at the Blue Box in the Park. He tells me that they are obliged to have these surgeries whether anyone attends or not. As on previous occasions no-one had attended. Probably not surprising as I had only received notice of the meeting about two hours before. That set me thinking – perhaps we should have a cup of tea hour properly publicized for everyone to come and meet him and tell him their concerns. Obviously, the Blue Box will be too small, so I guess it may have to be at 76 Main Street.

Newtown Linford Parish Council

Serving the people of Newtown Linford

Bob Bown Playing Fields: - The Council has installed a new waste bin as whilst we believe the bins are being emptied fortnightly by Charnwood Borough Council they have proved of insufficient capacity for the waste being deposited. In the meantime, we are making sure Charnwood B.C. are fulfilling their obligation.

The maintenance company had quoted for the repair of the wet pour surface which is peeling away in some places. The Clerk did think the price too good to be true. On the day of repair work an email was received stating they had made a mistake and the price would be nearly £5,000 more. Naturally the Councillors cannot authorise this work and now must go to out to tender.

November Parish Meeting – As for the last few years there will be no meeting in November. The meeting dates are Monday 22nd October, Monday 10th December and Monday 14th January.

VAS sign for Roecliffe Road

The new sign has been received and the software installed on computer. The residents on Roecliffe Road have not yet submitted a final suggestion for siting to the Parish Councillors for their approval.

Street Troughs

The Chairman, Sue Pritchard will soon be clearing these for the winter and for the first time will plant out winter pansies.

Man living in Van on Sharpley Hill

County Councillor Deborah Taylor has investigated on our behalf and here is her report: - I was contacted by the Clerk regarding a man, apparently living in a van that had been parked in a lay by on Sharpley Hill. I contacted the police and was advised the vehicle was legal, so they had no powers to move the vehicle on. I was advised to contact the MATU for advice.

The MATU visited the man along with the police. The van was recognised as being one that had previously been seen on Beacon Hill car park. The man occupying it informed them that he had been living in the van for many years in and around the various parks of Leicestershire, he was happy and did not require any assistance. The vehicle is legal and whilst they have powers to move him on the time this takes (around a week) and the cost is not really proportionate, they are not aware of any issues or ASB that is connected to him at this time.

He was given some words of advice regarding stopping in locations such as this one for extended periods as it draws attention to him from local residents. The unit have his details now and they are happy to monitor the situation and if there are issues they can take further action. They will drive past that location regularly and check if he is still in situ and if this becomes a long term stop they may consider taking further action. If there are any further concerns, please let me know and I will pass these onto the unit.

Police – The Councillors are pleased to note their attendance for the second consecutive month.

Parking proposals for Grey Crescent – At the time of writing (12.09.18) there is no sign of this from the County Council. It is understood that the delay is due to the complexity of the submissions from residents all over the village and County staff holidays.

Have you looked at the website recently?
